

Deal Designation

Keeping up with the ebbs and flows of the competitive price for a particular RV can be time consuming when you're busy closing your next sale - but it's important to ensure you're attracting qualified buyers. Fortunately, Trader Interactive makes it easy and helps you stay even more competitive in your local and nationwide markets with Deal Designation.

Using proprietary data, Deal Designation gives you a high-level look at how all your units are priced compared to matching units nationwide and locally. It looks at units with the same year, make, model, and trim across the nation and in your local market and finds an average listing price - no manual research required. Your unit is then compared against the average to assign a designation of "Great Deal," "Good Deal," "Fair Deal," or "Above Market." This is a value-added service accessible now within the TraderTraxx platform located directly beside your inventory.

When used to its full potential, this brand service can help you gain valuable insights to build a competitive pricing strategy in your market. Get a leg up on the competition with Deal Designation.

BENEFITS OF DEAL DESIGNATION:

ACCESS EXCLUSIVE INSIGHTS

Pinpoint the average price for a unit of a specific year, make, model, and trim without having to manually research and keep track of similar listings on our marketplace

BASED ON LIVE INVENTORY

To determine an average listing price range, there must be at least 3 units that match year, make, model and trim, ensuring dealers' inventory is being priced against relevant units

REGULARLY MAINTAINED & UPDATED

The designations are derived from the previous day's data and can fluctuate day to day based on a listing's mileage or price adjustments, allowing dealers to keep their prices as competitive as possible

DEALER FEEDBACK

Dealers can easily provide feedback if they think a designation is incorrect by clicking on "See An Issue" to explain or justify the price for a product. This feedback helps ensure the accuracy of our deal designation engine Deal Designation can be found in the Inventory section of TraderTraxx and is just one aspect of this platform. At its core, TraderTraxx is designed to power your entire digital universe and provide you with the tools and data insights you need to stay competitive in your market and nationwide. From listing your inventory, marketplace, and social media advertising, to accessing exclusive consumer and marketplace data - TraderTraxx is designed to elevate and expand your digital strategy, on our websites and beyond, and gives you a better understanding of how consumers connect with your dealership in their pre-purchase research.
